REMARKS

For expediency and efficiency, and if acceptable to the Office, it is acceptable to Applicant that these proposed amendments be entered by Examiner's amendment. Alternately, Applicant can formally submit an amendment.

Please note, double underlining is used in a few places to indicate minor changes from the text of the prior dependant claims. These changes are felt to be straightforward and desirable now for grammatical correctness and clarity. Undersigned would be happy to discuss these if Examiner wishes.

Upon entry of the proposed amendments it will be our understanding that claims 1-9, 12-14, and 17-18 will remain pending (and allowable) in this application, wherein claims 1, 12, and 17 are now amended and claims 10-11, 15-16, and 19-20 are now cancelled as redundant.

CONCLUSION

Applicant has endeavored to put this case into complete condition for allowance. It is thought that all objections and rejections have been corrected by amendment. Applicant therefore asks that all objections and rejections now be withdrawn and that allowance of all claims presently in the case be granted.
